EDITORIAL

I am very sorry to announce that the AGM insisted on increasing BBQ subs to £7.50 per year to help cover ever-increasing copying costs. Although I still believe it to be good value for money, I sincerely hope that it does not reduce our growing number of happy subscribers.

We are still looking for more new subscribers, and so anyone knowing of others who may like to subscribe, should get in touch NOW. New subscribers always welcome.

The renewal form for the next four issues is printed on page 9, but, if you do not want to spoil your copy, simply give the required information when sending your cheque. In the meantime, good luck to you all for the New Year!

ENGLAND SELECTION COMMITTEE:

It has not yet been decided whether waistcoats will be worn this year.

GRAND PRIX FINALS

A new sponsor is being sought as Paul Attwell has said that he will not have sufficient funds available for the next two years. He will come to present the GOLD CUP, and will replace it if Paul Sainsbury wins the trophy for the third successive year.

PROPOSALS ACCEPTED AT THE A.G.M.

(1) Alternative Rules Championship

There was much discussion over changing rules and it was agreed 10-7 that a change needed to take place. Eventually, the meeting overwhelmingly plumped for the more radical Kent proposition of SIX balls on the table in a triangular shape behind the 100 hole at the start of each leg. More news on that to follow.....

(2) County Qualification

From 1997, a unanimous decision that from 1st September each year till 31st August the following year, any player will be allowed to represent ONE county only in any of the following competitions: All-England Indiv, Ladies All-England Indiv, County Championships, Ladies County Championships, Alternative Rules Championships and National Team Championships.

(3) County B teams.....Ladies

Counties will now be allowed to enter "B" teams in the Ladies County Championships. It was also agreed that a "B" team would be allowed promotion. Only 2 votes were registered against this proposal, one of which was your BBQ editor, so don't blame me!

A GLOUCESTERSHIRE pub now has a table and are considering entering the All-England.

THE DECIDING FACTOR in all team championships staged by All-England are (1) legs won (2) matches won, then (3) aggregate score, but it is not fair when players who are given walkovers do not receive any score to count for the team aggregate.

Now they will be given the AVERAGE winning score in the match.

THE B B Q. Eric Hill stated that the copying he carries out for the B B Q is not funded by the subscriptions. The floor proposed an increase in the annual subscription to £7.50, much against the wishes of the editor.
