EDITORIAL

The end of my NINTH year sending out this dross. I would still like more subscribers for the new Millennium, to help to make it more worthwhile, so please try to spread the word amongst your friends and team-mates. Let me have name and address, with the annual subscription of £7.50 in time for the next edition.

OBITUARY: Please forgive a personal moment. My mother, MURIEL, died on October 26th at the age of 83. I only include the news as many of you will remember her attending and supporting many local and National events over the last few years. She loved lending her support in many ways, and hearing about her "baby" doing well in any type of event.

She had suffered from arthritis for over 60 years, been disabled over 20 years, and started deteriorating after her first stroke in 1997.

I know she will miss you all, and hope you will miss her.

ESSO'S TITLE AT FOURTH TIME OF ASKING

Jersey's top team, "The Esplanade", have taken the British Isles Open Championship 1999 in the shape of PETER NOEL, having had three different players in the final for the last three years

Peter who, at just a few weeks short of his 70th birthday, is believed to be the oldest-ever winner of the event (unless Harry Siddal was older when he won the first BIOC in 1981), had also won the title way back in 1984 as well losing out to Reading's Dave Harris in 1986.

Team-mates Don Cadec, Steve Ahier and Nick Barnett were all beaten in the last three finals by Englishmen, but Peter was not going to let it happen again, playing the 1990 runner-up Terry Race (Brighton).

It was a classic, the most intriguing final for years:

He started off with a 7,970 break in the first nine minutes of the first leg after losing the toss.

But he did not get another chance as Terry replied with a 5,820 in under seven minutes himself to take a 2,150 deficit into the 2nd leg, and with his break to come.

Terry, although appearing to play slightly quicker, had made only 6,720 in just under nine minutes when he allowed Peter to the table.

4,570 behind with seven minutes left, Peter seemed to have lost his chance when he scored only 340 in the next minute and allowed Terry a chance to clinch it.

The Brighton man played a superb three-ball shot which would have assured him the title, but only two went down and the third travelled back towards the pin, just knocked it over and gave Peter a last golden opportunity.

A scorching 5,750 break in under six minutes gave Jersey their first BIOC since Dennis Helleur beat Harry Barbet in 1992.

Terry made 300 with the last few balls but Peter had won 14,060-17,840, and the celebrations began, but they were not too highly-spirited.

Well, he is 69!

Peter had fought his way through undoubtedly the toughest of the 16 sheets. When the draw was made, if he had looked at the British Rankings, he would have noticed numbers 1, 3 and 4 alongside him, as well as the prospect of the sheet winner having to play the no. 2 Les Green, or Jersey's 2nd highest-ranked player Dennis Helleur, for a place in the last eight.

Undaunted, he beat Reading's Kent-based Paul Sainsbury with a 7,350 break in the second round following a first round bye.

The ample (?) frame of Neil "Jockey" Bickers, who later controversially lost on the crowd's say-so to champion Dicko Pembroke in another classic "Spoons Challenge", was Peter's next opponent, followed by Roy Wells "Sussex", before having to face no. 1 Kevin Tunstall in the fifth round, the stage where the double-leg games are introduced.

Peter built up an impressive 8,760 - 560 first leg lead, and then held on tight as Tunstall failed to make a large enough impression. Peter won the 2nd leg too, 5,770 - 5,450.

Helleur had seen off Green in the 4th round with a 7,150 break, but, although leading Noel at half-time 5,990 - 230, Peter's 11,210 break in the 2nd was a dream.

Next came Jason Holley, a late entrant from Jersey who had ousted much-fancied pair Alan Le Blond and Graeme Le Monnier to get this far. (Well, much-fancied by their own families, anyway.) Holley plays in the local league's SECOND Division.

But a 12,750 break in the first leg and another score of 11,520 to follow gave Peter the required impetus into the semi-finals where he met Portsmouth's Paul Wing, hoping to impress enough to get his first England cap in 2000.

Paul had had a sedate run into the fifth round before beating England's first-ever BIOC winner Bernie McCluskey. Trailing only 900 - 4,210 on first innings, Paul opened the 2nd leg with a classy 9,110 break.

Noel trailed 6,090 - 3,220 to Wing, but made a magnifique 10,110 in leg two and he was comfortably into his third BIOC final.

There had been a raised eyebrow or two when the draw was published. Top-ranked duo Kevin Tunstall and Keith Sheard, fierce rivals in ALL events over the last twenty years or so but also Oxfordshire team-mates, were scheduled to meet.

Holder Sheard seemed to "bottle" his first break, scoring only 1,150. Kevin steadily made an 8,860 in reply, followed by some shots from Sheard which were hit so hard they only threatened the scorer's handsome good looks.

Dave Constable (Redhill) regained some "form of years gone by" with a tremendous run of results. He beat England Ladies International Josie Hogan (a fellow Redhill-mobster) in round three, followed by wins over Pete Farrelly (yes, very luckily), Micky Daw (yes, very splendidly) and Harry Barbet (yes, very, very unexpectedly).

Over 7,000 to Barbet, he opened leg two (if you pardon the expression) with a very calm 8,000, taking the punters' favourite out of the running.

Barbet's play to that moment was phenomenal. Drawn to play 1998 runner-up Nick Barnett in round one, he stepped in when Barnett missed his first one-up and proceeded to reply with an 8,890 break.

A 9,670 break then ousted Sussex starlet Gareth Lloyd, before just avoiding embarrassment by beating Sue Barnes, wife of AE Sec Dave, in round three. After losing a break close to 2,000, he simply could not keep any score 75% of the way into the game.

Sue had won her first two matches with 370 and 460, so she was on a career-best 490 before the "Spider" untangled himself from his own web.

Harry resumed normal service for rounds four and five, making a 7,180 break to beat Nigel Bisson and then a 13,080 break to beat Guernsey's best player Trevor Gallienne, before being "arrested" by the Redhill Constable.

Martin Carre, not currently registered for any Jersey side, reached the quarter-finals by beating Mark Brewster, Dorset's own Eric Hill and Chris Tupper.

Another of the event's surprise packages was John Robertson from Sussex who, despite given "no chance" by first round opponent Jim Millward, the 1997 champion, went through to narrowly lose out to Graham Bisson, the 1982 champion and 1993 runner-up, in the last sixteen.

Bisson had earlier beaten the 1990 and 1991 champion Steve Ahier with an 8,160 opener so impressive that Ahier just shook hands and walked away.

Terry Oakley from Redhill, who has struggled since winning in 1996, fought his way into the last 16 this time before losing to Tables Manager Nigel Ryall.

Ryall always performs in this event, but seems to run out of steam. After a bye and a walk-over and two regulation victories, he caused a storm by ousting Mark Sawyer (Wokingham), one of England's hot hopefuls.

Once Sawyer had lost his opener, Ryall won the first leg 10,630 - 30 and then started leg 2 with a truly remarkable 14,380, the best break of the weekend, although it could not qualify for any prize.

That went to Dennis Helleur for the Channel Is and Terry Race for UK, although in the past a runner-up could not claim the holiday prize.

Sheila O'Brien took three of the six ladies' prizes.

Steven Sheard retained his Junior title, still remaining unbeaten in THREE years.

Watch out when he is old enough for the big person's game!

FAZZA'S SPECIAL JERSEY AWARDS:

MOST USELESS INVITATION

A letter of welcome from De Normandie Hotel Manager Aaron Pearce included an invitation for a complimentary cocktail in the bar at 6.0 p.m. on Monday evening.

Most were returning home well before that time. Nice one, Aaron.

MOST COMPLIMENTARY AIR TICKET

As two Brian Joneses (both from High Wycombe) entered the BIOC, one was designated the "Gobby One" in the draw so that everyone knew which one was where.

This led to many Wycombe lads acquiring caps to wear while he was playing, all showing their allegiance to the "Gobby One Fan Club".

That was OK, but we have it on good authority that Brian's air ticket was issued with the SAME differentiation. I bet he got a good seat on the flight...just under the wings.

And then, the second Brian Jones didn't even turn up for his match.

THE "E.T. PHONE HOME" AWARD

Chris Saville had been told by his wife Gill to phone home on Wednesday Night to ensure he had arrived in Jersey safely. Chris enjoyed the first night hospitality a little too much and thought he may have been in trouble if he had "slurred" his touching "I love you" message, so he decided against ringing. He phoned at 7.45 the next morning to catch Gill before work and was well into his prepared statement about all the telephones in the hotel playing up, and being so frustrated at not being able to get through to her, when Gill interrupts....."What ARE you talking about? You rang just after midnight. You woke me up! And you were DRUNK!"

MOST CUTTING REMARK

Chris Saville for announcing that he had just seen a bunch of County Second Division players in the Shopping precinct.

Anon: How ARE Bernie, Paul and Lew?

THE TONY WALSH SPECIAL AWARD FOR BEST EYESIGHT

Won anonymously for "As we flew in Thursday Morning over the golf course, I'm sure I saw Kevin Tunstall trying to get out of a bunker"

Special 2nd prize for Phil Rice, for falling into the swimming pool and having to have stitches in his nose, forehead and chin.

THE MOST BLOSSOMING TELE-TUBBY AWARD

Mark Turner, now promoted from the reserve list. He asked Hotel Reception to order a 5-seater Taxi, and a voice was heard to say, "Is that one seat for Joe and four for you?"

MOST COMMONLY USED PHRASE

As in previous years: "What time do you play?" was fairly commonly used at Breakfast on Saturday, "Are you still in?" was very commonly used on Sunday, but easily the most common phrase throughout the weekend was....."Wow, look, he's brought the wife!"

THE "WHICH WAY'S THE MAYFAIR" AWARD

Terry Race won for making sure he had an early night on Friday so that he was not seen rolling home in the early hours.

THE TONY TAGG AWARD FOR DECIBEL LEVEL

Mick Cotillard. Your editor's bedroom was immediately above the admin desk and Mick was requested to keep the volume down whenever a 30-minute kip was on the agenda.
ALL TO NO AVAIL....

MOST UNEXPECTED WINNER (ROUND ONE)

Sue Barnes, beating Marion Sewell 370 - 70, and who also won the "knocking down the black pin" competition 2-1.

MOST UNEXPECTED WINNER (ROUND TWO)

Sue Barnes, beating May Goodes 460 - 200.

MOST RELIEVED LOSER (ROUND THREE)

Sue Barnes, scoring a record 490, and only just losing to Harry Barbet (2,350) who lost loads of scores but managed to keep a solid 1,970 to win with a little embarrassment.

IAN "MAN-IN-BLACK" COLEMAN AWARD FOR NORTANTS WALLY OF THE YEAR:

Kevin Ross for relying on his "manager's assistant" Dawn Dunkley to tell him what time he was playing his third round match on Sunday Morning, thus arriving ten minutes too late.

LONGEST TIME TAKEN TO PLAY A SHOT

Tony Walsh, against Dennis Claydon, playing at a ball near the 10 hole, but the bar had dropped, and he was over 7,000 down at that point.

MOST DEVASTATED REALISATION

Olive Bisson, when it was pointed out that the £10 Polo Shirts on offer to celebrate the last BIOC event of the Millennium had actually been embroidered with one "N" missing from the word Millennium. Send your leftovers back to the makers, Olive.

MOST DRAMATIC REALISATION

That Kevin Tunstall, Mark Sawyer and Bernie McCluskey were all going to be beaten at the same time on nearby tables, in the last 32.

SECOND MOST DRAMATIC REALISATION

That Dorset's best player Eric Hill would reach the SAME stage.

THE NIGEL BISSON "SHORT, BACK & POLISH" AWARD FOR BEATING

INTERNATIONAL PLAYERS Dave Constable who beat Josie Hogan, Pete Farrelly, Micky Daw and Harry Barbet in quick succession.

MOST USELESS REQUEST FOR SYMPATHY.....

Micky Daw to Pete Farrelly, who had hoped to play him in the last 32, before losing to Dave Constable:

"I'm 1,000 down after the first leg on MY break"

.....and BIGGEST LET-DOWN

Pete Farrelly to Micky Daw: "GOOD!"

THE "I'LL MAKE UP FOR DAD LOSING" AWARD

Steven Sheard

THE KEITH LEWENDON AWARD FOR BEST OPENING LINE OF A SPEECH

Dave Barnes: "I'll keep it short so Farrelly can't take the mickey." Too late Dave.

THE "I DON'T LOVE KEITH LEWENDON ANYMORE" AWARD

Richard Pembroke: "They all SAID they'd be here to support me. I saw them earlier. That bast.rd Lew is not even here, and I love Jim Millward for stepping in to be my manager"

THE "GIVE THE GAME AWAY, WHY DON'T YOU" AWARD

Kevin Tunstall for plainly accusing Jim Millward for hitting HIS ring when Jim was "only Dicko's manager" and hadn't even got any spoons in his hand.

(you would have had to have been there)

THE DRACULA AWARD

Dicko: "But it doesn't even TASTE like blood. Somebody's stitching me up."
Could that have been the doctor standing behind you?

THE BEST ACTOR OSCAR

Dicko for playing us all along. He MUST know by now.

THE MONDAY MORNING BLUES AWARD

Tony Walsh: "It would have been nice to see the final!"

MOST AMAZING REVELATION

Mary Martin for saying that Pete Farrelly was NOT a piss-taker.

THE QUICKEST CHANGE OF MIND

Mary Martin. Tony had just been asked if he would want three trolleys for all his luggage at the airport. Tony said "Yes, two for the bags and one for the wife"

Pete said "Or even the other way around"

WINNERS OF THE "STARS IN THEIR OWN MIND" COMPETITION

For looking like Freddie Mercury (... as he would look now) Bernie McCluskey (1st prize)
 For looking like Sir Richard Hadlee (...will look in 2025) Graham Le Beuvant (2nd prize)
 For looking like Barney Rubble in 3-D Andy Haines (3rd prize)
 For looking like King Kong (.....whenever he likes) Steve Purkiss (ANY prize)

Amazingly, every game went against the break in the final. Captain Kevin could have clinched it for the Chequers as he retrieved break position with enough time to win, and stunned all by missing the break. Steve Hawkes gave him one more chance and he could STILL DO IT. He missed two chances at the 200 to win.

Sussex team captain Brian Richards had to play the 5th leg, played on the timed break rule. He looked very assured at 5,170 in under 8 minutes, but then missed the ball sitting between the 30 and 20 pockets off the cushion. Gary Coupar breathed a heavy sigh and proceeded to score a winning 5,880 in seven minutes to make the Oxford lads smile.

According to a proposal accepted at the 1998 AGM, only those having played in HALF of the events could be invited.

PRIZE MONEY (DONATED BY BAR BILLIARDS LTD)

Winner £150 Runner-up £80 Semi-finalists £35

MARK TURNER kept his nerve superbly to take the Grand Prix Final against No.1 Kevin Tunstall.

Although Kevin had been in splendid form throughout, making two 10,000 breaks in the first round against Dennis Claydon, a magnificent 20,000 break against Mark Brewster, and a very "lucky" 17,420 against your BBQ editor, he could not put the title out of Mark's reach in the final.

Put in to break first, he was on target for around 21,000 when he missed his 25th split shot. It had been a perfect break up to then, 700's all the way to 17,300 in only 14 minutes 45 seconds.

Mark took a full minute to get the break back but then finished off the first leg with 1,800.

It was important because it meant that Mark did not have to play too fast. He was playing well until he started struggling at just over 7,000. Once that problem was out of the way, he settled down again and retrieved the break position after 7½ minutes. His final break was 16,790 and he was the Grand Prix Champion for the first time.

Wallingford A won 7-3 overall.

Oxford A started with two away legs through the Godfrey brothers, but Wallingford fought back to lead 3-2 going into the second leg. Gary Johnson almost played out the opener and put Wallingford level, but just UP on aggregate. Kevin Tunstall played out the next one and Dennis Atkins started the third with a 10,000 break, leaving Oxford needing to win the last two games by almost 30,000. Ian Moquet disappointingly started with only 600 and Keith Sheard replied with 10,320 to clinch the title. Pete Burton had nothing to play for, except the highest away break.....

He needed to beat 19,100, set by Bernie McCluskey (against KT in the semi), but reached 18,520 with time in hand, but blew it! Both players had time to add a few points before the bar dropped.
