

BAR BILLIARDS QUARTERLY

No. 9 - APRIL 1993

Edited by: Peter Farrelly, 46 Pratt Road, Rushden, Northants, NN10 0EQ. 0933-57023

Assistants: Simon Tinto and Paul Brice

We start another year . . . our third with the BBQ. County Secretaries receive a free copy, anyone else wanting to receive a copy of this dosh every three months should send £3 (cheques payable to the editor) for a whole year's subscription. We have now begat the "3BQ" issued by Chris Tupper in Brighton and the NSBQ sent to me by someone in North Sussex. They say that imitation is the sincerest form of flattery so I thank you all in Sussex for these.

The best news available is that "POT BLACK" Snooker and Cue Sports Magazine is now running regular monthly articles on Bar Billiards. We have already seen reports from both the Oxford Open and the International in Jersey. These reports will NOT be reproduced here, so I suggest you see your newsagent or send £19 for an annual subscription (£1.60 per month) to Pot Black Magazine, Gordon House, 6 Lissenden Gardens, London NW5 1LX. Why don't you also write to tell them that you love the reports as this may encourage them to expand the coverage. The editorial office is at Fairwinds, First Avenue, Hook End, Brentwood, Essex, CM15 0HL.

It is with much regret that we report the death of Peter Pannell. Peter was All England Chairman on and off for about 9 years just prior to Peter Wright taking over, and many of you will remember his commitment and love for the game. Our sincere condolences go to his wife, Cath, in Redhill, Surrey.

B. McCluskey 240 20

After Bernie uncharacteristically fluffed his first break, Les took a handy lead into the second leg. When Les opened with only 4,100, Bernie STILL had a chance with over 13 minutes left to play. It was not to be Bernie's day and Les scored another 14,000 to take his first National title.

FACTS Les is a 34-year-old bus driver playing for the Denmark Arms in Rochester. He has a wife, Ann with two step-children and two grand-children. He has been playing the game for 17 years and, with no John Burrows in the field, captured his first big event. He says his toughest match in the tournament was his first, against Steve Mariner.

FUN INTERNATIONAL PROFILES

Kevin Tunstall - Has more cups than Madonna's bra-maker

Bernie McCluskey - Has only missed one International, but some of last year's is hazy following a fainting fit by the bar.

Keith Sheard - Current All-England Champion, in and out of the team like a fiddler's elbow.

Peter Farrelly - Obviously a total nutter considering the time he puts into the BBQ.

Simon Tinto - Election as V-C of the All-England and member of the selection panel have mysteriously coincided with his recall (unfair - ed) but is he man enough for the Trinity Arms Golf Trip? (NO! - S.T.)

Keith Lewendon - The Um-Ah kid.

Paul Sainsbury - Single-handedly responsible for the new coathangers in the Dog & Sausage. Most famous last words "Just the one then, Simon". 1992 Dutch Open Champion and Dutch cap winner.

Phil Hawkins - His clash with "Bomber" still echoes round the Inn-on-the-Park, giving him the new nickname "The Exocet".

Les Green - His best season ever. Ranked 10, except in Kent apparently.

Kevin Clark - Top Under-22 player a few years ago. Now he's started shaving he can come and play with the big boys.

Steve Mariner - Perhaps we can post his next BIOC prize to save him losing it.

Pauline Withey – Quarter-Finalist in the "Hunt the Maxwell Pension Fund Competition".
 Jan Taylor – No 1, but her first International in Jersey, where even the most careful can be caught out, one way or another.
 Alison Norman – Redhill's Delta Lady and Gatwick's "Girl Most Likely To" of 1989.
 Sue Banting – Used to most of our little ways . . . but not all of them.
 Gail Woods – Something of a comeback after a couple of years sitting on the boss's knee.
 Debbie Surman – A "Single" minded approach is paying dividends.
 Sue Leach – Making her mark in the Portsmouth area, but they are cleaning it off now. Great things are expected, but more of that later.
 Harry Barbet – The "Spider" spent some time in Sussex learning how to play proper Bar Billiards, but appears to be all right now.
 Graham Bisson – Hates the taste of defeat, preferring de beer or de gin and tonic.
 Vernon Festou – Fastest cue in town (according to barmaids at his local) but not the longest (same source).
 Dennis Helleur – Has demonstrated his preference for coming from behind.
 Marion Kosmider – A very adaptable individual according to the graffiti in the gents.
 Josie Maughan – Now introduced to draught lager, hence the drop in Malibu shares.
 Jenny Noel – Has vowed to increase the number of lady players by having a baby every January.

Once Max had only opened the first leg with 1,810 and then failed to take advantage of an unexpected reply of only 260, it always looked like Les' second title in only five weeks. The Oxfordshire Open Champion scored a 10,990 break to take the first leg by 9,200. Although he had only 750 on the board after three visits to the table in the second leg, he was still 440 ahead. Les then settled down again for another 10,840 break and it was all over. He said that the toughest match this time was against Anthony Walsh who he thought was going to thrash him after messing up his first break.

POT BLACK

Is anyone able to supply the editor with FREE 9 x 7 envelopes for sending out BBQ? Smaller envelopes need too much folding of pages and this size is very expensive. I may as well also plead for AEG Olympia Carbon Typewriter Ribbons (DIN 2128) as these are over £3 each and only last 2 or 3 weeks. The budget is tight now that funds raised from the sale of BBQ are also subsidising reports sent to POT BLACK.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTIES

Northants . . . The day after winning the Plate Competition in Bournemouth, Steve Biggs made County history with his 21st League victory, thus becoming the first player to survive a whole season without defeat. His Rushden Snooker Centre "A" team captured their ninth title two matches prior to the end of the season.

COUNTY SECRETARIES . . . please provide the Editor with end-of-season round-ups from your Leagues.
